Kitesurfing will give you more of a “hands-free” and open view experience due to the absence of sail in front of you. A windsurf sail, on the other hand, provides a more direct and lively response than a kite, but also a more violent experience when doing tricks.

Kitesurfing vs Windsurfing: Which One Is Best For You?

Typically flat water or small wind chop. Shallow 100m out and then deep enough for foiling. Narrow beach often
